HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

W. S. Butterfield of Perkinsville raised nearly 500 bushels of oats this season.

By the frost of last Wednesday morning N. P. Wheeler of White River Junction lost 40 acres of beans.

A train near Cavendish killed three steers belonging to Mr. Hinton of Baltimore this week. They were on a crossing.

Schools in White River Junction had an attendance of 872 the first week, the largest attendance at the opening of school on record.

The King's Daughters of Springfield have engaged Miss Florence Niel of Randolph as district nurse, to succeed Mrs. Carl Ellis.

The steamer Vermont was taken off Lake Champlain last week and has gone into winter quarters. She had the shortest season in her history.

Rev. C. F. Eddy, pastor of the Baptist church in Brandon, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church in Fairmont, W. Va., and will leave for there about Oct. 1.

Gilbert LaFarr of East Middlebury received a serious injury to one hip a few days ago when he jumped off an automobile before it came to a standstill. He was thrown, striking on his hip.

A big black bear was recently killed by Mr. Beattie in Monroe, N. H., just over the line from Barre. The bear weighed 300 pounds and was thought to have been responsible for the loss of several sheep by Mr. Beattie.

A man and woman, judging by imprints of shoes left at the window where they entered, burglarized Allen's Women's shop at Bellows Falls one night recently, taking 14 silk waists, which sold at $8.50 each. No trace of the guilty parties has been secured.

Rev. Merle Crawford, who has been preaching in Winooki and Albion since May, has resigned, and his removal, with that of Rev. C. E. Hayward of North Troy, leaves Rev. R. H. Washburn of the Methodist church the only Protestant clergyman in Winooki.

First Lieut. E. V. K. Wilson of Rutland, who was in the aviation section, signal corps, has been given an honorable discharge after a year of active service. He was taken ill in England and after some time spent in a British hospital, he was ordered to America for convalescence.

Stock, Tools and Crops at Auction

As I am leaving town, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on the premises where I now live in Williamstown, about one and one-half miles from the village, in the Jeffords neighborhood, on

at 1 o'clock sharp in the afternoon, the following described:

32 HEAD OF STOCK
4 registered cows, 1 6-year-old Inka Colantha No. 205925, due to freshen in December; 1 3-year-old Auggie Clifton Butcher Piebe, No. 268369, due to freshen in March; 14 Jersey cows, some fresh, others to freshen in a month and others later, all young and good size; 3 registered calves, 1 heifer, 1 10-month-old bull, 1 bull calf, 1 Ayrshire bull, 8 months old; 6 Jersey yearling heifers to be taken in, 1 Jersey calf, 4 horses, black pair weighing 2,450, 12 years old, a good team; black mare, good worker and driver, 3-year-old Morgan mare, a dandy, not broken; 5 shoats, 17 hens and about 40 pullets. Some commission stock may be taken in.

FARMING TOOLS—Seeder, fertilizer or lime sower, express harness, almost new single unit Empire milking machine, ensilage cutter, 36-foot carrier and chains complete, in fine running order; 4 1/2 h. p. Jumbo engine, DeLaval cream separator No. 15, with Universal drive; 25 runs of stove wood; about a lot of other personal property.

CROPS—About 20 tons No. 1 hay cut in June; 8 tons rowan, 5 tons straw, about 1 1/2 acres field corn ready to husk; 2 acres of fodder corn standing; 1/4 acre green oats and 1/4 acre millet, in the field; 90 bushels new Montana seed oats, 30 bushels No. 1 barley, 15 bushels wheat, 5 bushels winter rye.

All the above property will positively be sold, as I have no further use for it. Terms at time of sale.

Thoroughbred Holsteins
—at—
AUCTION

To reduce my stock of purebreds, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on

Wednesday, Sept. 25, '18
at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, sharp, on the premises occupied by George C. Benjamin, about half way between Barre and Montpelier, at Benjamin Falls,

60 HEAD OF PURE-BRED HOLSTEINS
—TWENTY-FIVE COWS, 15 to freshen between now and December; most of these cows have a record from 10 to 26 lbs., and practically all have A. R. O. dams; 10 two-year-olds to freshen within the next four months; 10 yearlings, 15 heifer calves. All this stock is in fine condition, and not a blemish on them. All stock over 6 months old has been tuberculin tested since Feb. 1918. This is without doubt the best lot of purebreds and the best lot of individuals which has been offered for sale at auction in central Vermont. Not a male animal in the sale. Papers will be furnished promptly. This sale will be positive; absolutely no by-bidding; no limit. The same conditions as prevail at all our sales; we will refund the price of any animal which anyone can prove to be bid in.

Terms, cash or 6 mo. bankable paper. Lunch served those coming from a distance. Wednesday, Sept. 25, 1918, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.
